4901 Bryan Street

For the best Italian Wine (and food) selection, there is absolutely, positively, no way, no how, anywhere better than Jimmy's. It's not a big selection. It is a quality selection. The DiCarlo brothers and their family have gone to great lengths to provide Dallas with those wines that best represent the best wines from Italy. All in the nicest, most quaint neighborhood-style market you can imagine. Yes, yes, it's located on Bryan. It's worth the trip. Want a Poggio All'Oro? You may be able to score one at Jimmy's. Certainly you can find Banfi's Rosa Regale. Plan your visit at lunchtime and get a meatball sub along with some prosciutto for dinner.
